With the name of Da-Du she is launched in 1928 by the danish mr. Olsen to enter the Amsterdam 1928 Olympic Games.

In 1928/1929 she is owned by William Vett , home port Copenhagen.

In 1929, she is brought to Italy to enter in various regattas.

Genoa Jib (the well known book on the leading regattas of the first 50 years of the XX century, page 54) remembers that she arrived second in the Coppa Genova during the 1929 Genoa International Sailing Week (winner Twins II); she is again second, behind the danish Dana in the Coppa Unione.

In 1932 she is sold to Count Giuseppe della Gheradesca.

In 1935, the new owner is Alberto Zanoletti di Rozzano and then, in 1938, count Zerilli Marimò.

In 1962, she has been sold to her last owner, mr. Norbert Tieger, who changes her name in Tieger. Mr. Tieger, aged 91, dies in 2012 and the present owners are his heirs.

The boat is in sailing very good conditions, strictly conformal to the original construction.

The price requested is in the order of Euro 35'000.-
