6mJI SUI 141 LILLYBELLE

Boat ID 1981SE06

LILLYBELLE is designed by Peter Norlin and built by Bröderna Heed, Akersberga, Sweden, 1981 for the 1981 World Cup on Lake Constance. She is designed to sail in very light winds and was one in a long run of Sixes named «May Be» that were owned by the Salén family. The yacht was built for Sven Salén.

The yacht competed at various international regattas during the 1980s and, sailing as S 99, achieved a 5th place finish at the 1985 World Cup. Since 2018 she is sailed by Jürg & Daniel Stocker as SUI 141. After a season of strong performances and regular podium finishes, LILLYBELLE SUI 141 claimed the 2025 Swiss 6mJI Modern Championship.

1989 keel refit with a winged keel from Ridder Bergström.

LILLYBELLE was undertaken a completely refit 2018/ 2019.
